Dear Sir:

Am in receipt of your letter, of the 30th of April, ask^{ing} if I would like to donate the bronze plaque portrait of (C. Brainard).
At present please hold the one you have on hand and as soon as I am to get more work cast in bronze I shall call for it and have a replica made as the original small model has been destroyed.

Thanking you for your courtesy,

I am sincerely yours,

James Novelli.

Dear Sir:

This will remind you that we still have your bronze portrait of C. Brainard. There is no objection to our holding it as much longer as you may wish, but I thought it best to remind you that it is still in our care.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
